OUR IMMEDIATE ACTION PLAN

SAVE HILLS from Unplanned Development and encourage Green India Mission

Development is the inherent key of human civilization that links to sustainability. However, unplanned development may cause serious future damage to human civilization if remains unchecked. Increased haphazard construction and reduction in required vegetative greenery is a serious issue faced by our hills, the result of which we are facing natural calamities almost every year. The founder of WAYSAC LP and its team is seriously concerned with this issue and decided to run a movement to Save Hills from Unplanned Development and encourage Green India Mission.

Hypothesis: All components of our life cannot survive without our land and environment. The idea and movement of WAYSAC LP will reach out by awaking each people through its mission- Awareness through Art, Activities, and Act. 'AAAA'. Our hills will be the perfect example globally of what can be gained from Planned Development and Green India Movements. Our ideology will focus on awareness of forest regeneration and the importance of planned development in hilly areas with an artistic approach.

An action plan devised for saving our land and environment will spread a message of our ultimate goal to increase the fresh air and water in hills by protecting our forests from destruction, felling, fire, and unplanned development through 'AAAA'- Art, Activities, and Actions.

UNDERSTAND

'AAAA'

- Awareness: Unplanned development from the past few decades in hilly areas has also resulted in the migration of people from their native places in search of employment and livelihood. Our floral diversity is the green signal of our life on this earth without it, our survival is impossible. The hills are the crown of the mother earth and floral diversity is a green pearl attached to it. Cutting down mountains and trees abruptly in the name of development will increase severe environmental and survival issues for mankind in future. The trees of hilly areas with wide leaves like Banj, Buransh etc. are the main source of oxygen and water that maintain the ecosystem of hills and promote livelihood. Awareness of these trees among people needs to be promoted. Students, being the freshest and adaptive mindset are the best sources to initiate awareness so that they motivate others throughout their life and acts.
 - Role of Art in 'AAAA': Art is an adequate power of expression that helps us in each moment. Art is the mirror of society. Our life cannot survive easily without art. Art is a way of communication. Therefore, it will be used as an asset to create awareness by conducting various camps, workshops, exhibition etc.
 - Activities: Organizing Talks, Lectures, Exhibitions, Campaigns, Online Seminars, and Tree Plantation drives will be considered. Various experts including Professor Joshi, Shekhar Chandra will deliver art talk/ lectures, shows and performances in Educational Institutions, Villages, Towns, Religious Places, Common Community Places and related places to create awareness and act. Students, teachers, workers, men, women, and art lovers will join by taking part in various activities. Volunteers will be nominated and Plantation will be executed.
 - Act: Encourage people to act voluntarily towards our objective.
